“Mighty Uke Day is a celebration of the diminutive yet dynamic ukulele and honors its unique ties to Michigan culture as well as its contributions to music education and appreciation in the schools and community.”

Mighty Uke Day in Old Town Lansing is Michigan's largest ukulele festival; bringing together film, live shows, workshops, open mic, children's activities, radio broadcast, strum-alongs, jams, and much more in a celebration of the “people's instrument”. Our fifth festival will be held May 8 - 10, 2015 and will feature headliners Stuart Fuchs and Victoria Vox along with a variety Michigan musicians as openers.

Proceeds from the festival will benefit Music is the Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit that supports a variety of music programs in the Lansing and Holt School Districts and the community.

We are holding a Mighty Uke Day Fundraising Party on March 22 at The Avenue Café (2021 E. Michigan Ave, Lansing) from 1 – 6:00 pm to help us continue and expand our programs, cover upfront costs, and get everyone fired up for our festival.

A variety of music and activities will be featured including featured performances, group strums, open mic, and more. A suggested donation of $10 gets you in for the afternoon; it's a great time for strummers and singers alike.
